County Auditor .- Mr Editor .- I roice the sentiment of a majority of the people, when I say that a new departure should be made in our county affairs and refrenchment and reform inaugurated by adopting business methods. Now let us commence right by putting no person in the Commissioners' Office but live enterprising, progressive business men, whose successful conduct of their own affairs is patent to all, and none but skilled and first class secountter to represent this the thirty-first Dis-trict in the State Senate of Pennsylvania, ants in the Auditors' office who possess the ability and will audit the accounts themselves without the intervention of an accountant whose charges are as exhorbitant as those of an Auditor. To that end I suggest the names of H. H. Hartman of Walker township and T. K. Beaver of Beale township, subject to Republican rules and usages. Both are first class accountants, the content of county accounts themselves in one-h ime usually occupied in such work and at one half the expanse. Their experience as business men fit them for inaugurating and perfecting this reform and retrenchmen. A TAX PAYER.
